

FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE DAY

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY • OCTOBER 19, 2019

The American Statistical Association (ASA) and the Caucus for Women in Statistics (CWS) are pleased to host the second annual Florence Nightingale Day. This event will be held at the Ohio State University campus and other locations across the country.

What:

A celebration of women in statistics and data science!

Join us for Florence Nightingale Day to discover the opportunities for careers in statistics and data science, to do activities with data, and to develop connections.

WHO:

Ohio 8th -12th grade students

WHEN:

October 19, 2019 (9am - 2:30pm)

WHERE:

The Ohio State University
Jennings Hall, MBI, 1735 Neil Ave

Transportation to be provided by parents and teachers. Students must attend with a teacher or parent.

We are looking for teachers who are willing to volunteer to bring a group of students to campus for the day to learn more about data science and statistics. We are also looking for volunteers to help organize and coordinate.
