Curious about Upper Arlington's first residents and the homes they chose to build / purchase?

Walk the oldest streets in Upper Arlington and learn about our community's first citizens and the general architectural styles popular a century ago. A Historical Society member will lead this short walk (approx. 1 mile) through the original section of Upper Arlington, highlighting the architectural features of historic homes and interesting facts about the development of our community.

(This tour is making a reappearance it was last offered in Sept. 2017.)

As chief stewards of Upper Arlington's history, our purpose is to discover, preserve and celebrate our heritage, both within the UA community and beyond, in an ongoing and sustainable way.
