COLLEGE CREDIT PLUS AT OHIO STATE

What is the Ohio State Academy Program?

The Ohio State Academy is The Ohio State University's College Credit Plus program. The Academy allows outstanding students to enroll in Ohio State classes before high school graduation.

Where do Ohio State Academy students take classes?

Classes are offered at all Ohio State campuses (Columbus, Lima, Mansfield, Marion, Newark and ATI Wooster).

What types of classes do Ohio State Academy students take?

Academy students can enroll in a wide range of courses, with most students selecting classes that are a part of the university's General Education curriculum. (Specific course enrollment is subject to eligibility requirements.) Some of the most popular subjects include:

- More than 30 foreign languages (including Spanish, Arabic, American Sign Language)
- Math and Statistics
- Natural Sciences (including Astronomy, Biology, Chemistry, Physics)
- Health Sciences (including Anatomy, Bioethics, Medical Terminology, Neuroscience)
- Literature and Composition
- Social Sciences (Psychology, Sociology, Anthropology)
- Political Science and History
- The John Glenn College of Public Affairs High School Internship Program (more information at https://glenn.osu.edu/high-school-internship-program)
- Educational Psychology (Learning and Motivation: Strategies for Success in College)

Ohio State Academy/CCP students may also follow 15- and 30-credit hour pathways (visit https://academy-ccp.osu.edu/sample-pathways for details). These pathways outline a variety of potential autumn and spring semester Level One courses.

Who can participate in The Ohio State Academy Program?

Admission criteria depends on the campus a student wishes to attend. These admission policies mirror the admission policies for incoming first-year students.
