

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion in UA Schools

OPEN-UA
Open Parent Education Network*

Exceptional children include those with giftedness, disabilities, or both.

OPEN-UA offers support, information, and a positive teamwork approach for families of those children.

in cooperation with UA Schools*

Featuring Andy Hatton, Ed.D.
Associate Superintendent of Learning & Leadership for UA Schools

Wednesday, October 2, 2019

7:00 - 8:00 p.m.

Covenant Presbyterian Church

2070 Ridgecliff Rd, 43221

The October meeting of OPEN-UA will focus on efforts of Upper Arlington Schools to promote diversity, equity, and inclusion and what that may mean for gifted and exceptional needs children. Andy Hatton, Associate Superintendent of Learning & Leadership will be there to present. There will be an opportunity to discuss and ask questions as well.

Can't join us in person?

- Join the conversation on Facebook, ‘OPEN-UA Discussion’ or
- Contact us at openuaspecial@gmail.com