

THE 4TH ANNUAL

FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE DAY

OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

• October 23, 2021

ONLINE EDITION!

The Caucus for Women in Statistics (CWS) and the American Statistical Association (ASA) are pleased to present the fourth annual Florence Nightingale Day. This event will be hosted online by the Ohio State University among other locations.

WHAT:

A celebration of women in statistics and data science! Join us for Florence Nightingale Day to discover the opportunities for careers in statistics and data science, to do activities with data, and to develop connections.

This event is free for students.

WHO:

All middle and high school students (at least 13 years old and before college/university) are welcome! This event is open to all students in the US and internationally. Women and underrepresented groups are particularly encouraged to participate.

WHEN:

Saturday, October 23, 2021 from 11 am-3:00pm EST (New York time)

WHERE:

Held online.

This activity is not sponsored by the Upper Arlington School District.
