Northam Tennis Courts
Reduced Early Season Hours through May 8
Regular Season Begins May 9
The Northam Tennis Courts opened for the season at the end of April, but
In community surveys, safety consistently ranks as a top priority for residents and a primary reason they choose to live here, with police, fire and EMS the most highly rated of all City services.

As 24/7, labor, equipment and training intensive operations, our Police and Fire divisions require extensive resources to fulfill their charges, and approximately half of the City’s annual operating budget is dedicated to safety services.

For all City services, it makes sense to periodically go through an evaluation process, to see how our operations compare to other agencies and to identify best practices that could be incorporated here, while also seeking opportunities for fiscal efficiency. It’s now the turn of the Police and Fire divisions to go through this process, with City Council approving a combined study in April that will be conducted by the Center for Public Safety Management, LLC.

Police and Fire Operations Study

The study will thoroughly evaluate the City’s existing safety force operations, to include:

- A study of current call volumes and response times, as well as future growth and demand projections;
- A review of mutual and automatic aid agreements with neighboring jurisdictions;
- A comparison to national standards and best practices;
- An evaluation of the current Fire Station locations relative to service area;
- An evaluation of duties performed by uniformed personnel that could be completed by civilian staff;
- An evaluation of each division’s fleet of vehicles;
- A review of each division’s organizational structures and shift operations

Using all of the data that it obtains, the Center for Public Safety Management report – which is expected to be shared with the City by early fall - will include recommendations for the short-term (one-to-four years) and for the long-term (five-to-10 years).

Police Facility Renovations

A heads up that the Police Division and City Attorney offices at the Municipal Services Center are about to undergo renovations. This work is not expected to impact services for residents in any way, however daily, behind-the-scenes operations will be conducted a little differently over the next several months.
The City of Upper Arlington and the Upper Arlington Historical Society are pleased to announce that Donald Lawrence Dodrill and Dr. Robert W. Wagner have been selected for induction onto the Wall of Honor in 2022.

Don Dodrill was an important contributor to the cultural arts of Upper Arlington and Central Ohio for over 50 years. He was a co-founder of the Upper Arlington Labor Day Arts Festival, exhibiting at the event for 45 years. He also taught watercolor and drawing classes for the City’s LifeLong Learning adult education program. He was one of the founding members of the Upper Arlington Art League in 1973, and was an active exhibitor, award winner and supporter of the league’s fall and winter show. He served on the Cultural Arts Commission and played an important role in the development of cultural arts activities for the broader community, including the Central Ohio Watercolor Society, Ohio Watercolor Society, American Watercolor Society, and the Ohio State Fair.

Robert Wagner was a professor and producer/director of cinema and photography. He led and developed the Department of Photography and Cinema at OSU into one of the most respected teaching institutions in the U.S. He could call many Hollywood Stars friends - bringing Charlton Heston and legendary film directors Frank Capra and George Stevens to speak with his students. Dr. Wagner received many lifetime awards, including the Eastman Kodak Lifetime Achievement Gold Medal and the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences Distinguished Service Award. He was a lover of everything UA, serving on the Cultural Arts Commission, and writing and producing the film documentary Portrait of Our Town - Upper Arlington. He also contributed photographs and research to the first edition History of Upper Arlington, and was a member of the 1976 UA Bicentennial Committee, as well as establishing the UA Photographic Society.

An induction ceremony to honor Mr. Dodrill and Dr. Wagner is scheduled for 3 pm, Sunday, May 22, at the Municipal Services Center, 3600 Tremont Road.

Call Public Service at 614-583-5350 if you have any questions.
Fishinger Road Phase I
Planning for the Fishinger Road project, slated to start late this year, began over six years ago. Last reconstructed in the 1960s and last repaved in 2002, the road was identified for replacement in the 2015 Capital Improvement Program. The following year, a Transportation Studio class from OSU studied the corridor. This included a survey of residents, with over 600 respondents indicating a desire for both improvements to the roadway and pedestrian connectivity.

Design work began in 2018. The City also applied to the Mid-Ohio Regional Planning Commission (MORPC) for funding support, securing grant monies that come available in 2022. The total budgeted construction cost is approximately $7 million, with MORPC funds covering up to $4.2 million.

Phase 1 is slated to begin later this year and includes work between the Five Points Intersection and Mountview Road. Work on the roadway includes new curb and gutter, rebuilding the roadway, new streetlights and a new dedicated right turn lane from Fishinger Road eastbound to Tremont Road southbound. The City will also install new five-foot-wide sidewalks on the south side of the project and a new eight-foot-wide sidewalk to the north to further increase pedestrian access in the area.

“The City currently spends a lot of time and energy doing pavement patches to extend the life of this street,” said City Engineer Carla Odebralski. “These improvements will update, stabilize and beautify UA’s busiest east-west collector street, while providing safe, active transportation options to this corridor will benefit our community.”

Along with the roadwork, the City will replace the waterline, originally installed in 1955, along the corridor. This is estimated at an additional $1.7 million. Crews are already at work relocating some of the utilities along this stretch of road and construction on the waterline is currently estimated to start in the fall with work continuing through most of 2023. Phase 2 - between Mountview Road and Riverside Drive - is tentatively scheduled for 2024.

FROM CHAMBERS | Highlights of City Council & Its Policy Decisions

Alcohol on Public Property Code Amendments
City Council recently approved some City Code amendments relative to the sale and consumption of alcohol on public property. This includes:

• Modifying the allowable area at the Amelita Mirolo Barn to anywhere within 60 feet of the building as long as the area is enclosed by temporary fencing.
• Adding the Upper Arlington Community Center, in keeping with the facility’s business plan, which includes rentable space for weddings and special events.
• Cleaning up language relative to Northam Park and allowing for the sale and consumption of alcohol at the park for events that have undergone the necessary permitting and approval process.
• Allowing a one-time permit for a new event being planned by the Parks & Recreation Department - The Arts on Arlington - scheduled for July 28 at the Mallway.

In all instances, any entity wishing to include the sale and consumption of alcohol for an event at one of these locations would need to comply with all state and local liquor laws, obtain all necessary state permits, and provide proof of adequate insurance. Sales and consumption of alcohol would end no later than 11 pm, or earlier, if deemed appropriate by the City Manager, based on various circumstances associated with the event and its potential impact on the premises and surrounding area. The City Manager could also require the use of a special duty officer or additional accommodations to ensure a safe and successful event.
Fourth of July Reminders

With UA’s favorite day of the year just around the corner, we have some useful information to share with the community.

Fireworks Safety
The State of Ohio may have passed new legislation allowing the discharge of fireworks on several specified dates effective July 1, 2022, however, cities are able to opt out and Upper Arlington has chosen to uphold its legislation banning the use of consumer grade fireworks in our community.

Annually, approximately 13,000 people are injured, and seven people killed in fireworks accidents throughout the US. Additionally, thousands of fires are ignited causing millions of dollars of property loss. The vast majority of these incidents occur in the four-week span surrounding the Fourth. Of note, 99% of the injuries and deaths, and most of the fires are the result of consumer grade fireworks—not professional, public firework shows.

Sparklers burn at 2,000 degrees, hot enough to melt many metals. They account for burn injuries and start many of the fires. The same can be said for firecrackers and bottle rockets.

The City recognizes these dangers and enacted laws prohibiting the sale, possession or use of consumer fireworks, including sparklers, bottle rockets, firecrackers and trick noisemakers. It is not the intent of the City to be heavy-handed in enforcement, but the City has and will continue to enforce its laws, especially when unsafe situations are witnessed by police.

We encourage you to enjoy all that Upper Arlington has to offer over the Fourth of July holiday, but be wise, and above all, be safe. Leave the fireworks to the professionals.

Block Parties
If your neighborhood is planning to host a block party on the Fourth of July, the deadline for submitting your permit application is Friday, June 24. The $50 fee covers administrative costs and the delivery of barricades. Block parties are not permitted on any of the City’s main thoroughfares. To learn more and to complete an application, visit the Applications & Permits section of the City Manager’s Office webpage, at upperarlingtonoh.gov.

Chairs Along the Parade Route
In the days leading up to the Parade, the route along Northwest Boulevard becomes overrun with lawn chairs and areas taped off by families staking their spectator spot. We ask that you refrain from this practice until just a few days before the parade, but recognize that once the first few chairs go out, more will follow quickly. It’s important to note that by placing your property at the curb similar to when placing trash or bulk items out for collection, you run the risk of having your property taken by opportunistic passersby. In such instances, their loss is not considered theft.

Northam Park Improvements Update
Over the winter and spring, new underground storm sewer infrastructure was installed at Northam Park, as part of a series of planned improvements to the athletic fields and tennis courts. This work is complete but several areas within the park were re-seeded and are currently cordoned off so that the new turf can become established. These areas will still be closed to the public over the Fourth holiday and we respectfully ask Party in the Park and fireworks attendees to stay away from these areas.

Tremont Pool, Northam Tennis Holiday Hours
To accommodate Party in the Park and the Fourth of July fireworks, the City’s recreation facilities at Northam Park will adopt the following schedule over the holiday period:

Sunday, July 3
- Northam Tennis – Closes at 3 pm
- Tremont Pool – Normal schedule, closing at 9 pm

Monday, July 4
- Northam Tennis – closed
- Tremont Pool – closed

Tuesday, July 5
- Northam Tennis – Regular 7 am opening may be delayed by firework cleanup
- Tremont Pool – Opens at 1 pm (as long as fireworks/park cleanup is complete)

Golf Cart Regulations
A popular trend in UA is the rental of golf carts over the Fourth of July holiday. It sounds like fun, but as this practice has grown, safety issues have increasingly been a concern for our Police and Fire divisions. In 2019 City Council adopted Ordinance 41-2019, authorizing residents’ use of code-compliant, under-speed vehicles year-round, and exempting non-compliant golf carts for five days over the Fourth of July holiday. The legislation limits their use to streets with speed limits of 25 mph or less and requires seatbelts.

Examples of safety/traffic violations that will be acted upon by Police Officers over the Fourth of July exemption period include, but are not limited to:
- Driving without a valid driver’s license or while under suspension
- Vehicular assault
- Reckless operation
- Traffic code violations that result in an accident
- Failure to obey traffic control devices
- Driving while under the influence
- Hanging outside the vehicle
- Violations of child restraint laws
- Underage drivers
Every so often, the City surveys residents to gauge how we’re doing in terms of the services we provide, and to identify where adjustments might be needed to stay in tune with the desires of the community. We are currently in the planning stages of the 2022 Community Survey process.

Sometime late spring/early summer, 1,500 randomly selected households will receive a letter from the City inviting them to participate in the survey. This letter will direct residents to either complete a hard copy of the survey that will be included with the letter, or an online version of the survey. As part of this, they will also receive a user passcode that is unique to their household, with the request that the adult (18 years & above) in the household with the last birthday complete the survey.

Once our survey consultant has received a sufficient number of responses to proceed with detailed analysis of the statistically valid findings, we will invite the rest of the community to complete an online version of the survey that will be open to everyone. The data obtained from this second survey tool will provide supplemental information but will not be included within the statistically valid analysis.

The primary goals of the 2022 Community Survey are to obtain feedback on areas that include:
• The quality of life in Upper Arlington
• Satisfaction with existing City services
• Opinions on recent economic development activity
• Opinions on efforts to advance Upper Arlington as a welcoming community for new and diverse residents and businesses
• Identifying or reaffirming important goals for the City

As we move into the summer and the returning data is analyzed, the emerging opinions and themes will be used in a variety of ways, aiding City Council as it sets direction for the City and as it prioritizes projects for the 2023-2024 budget. In addition, our City departments will use the data to determine satisfaction with existing programming and services, possibly obtaining new ideas or suggestions for improvement.

Survey consultant, Illuminology, is undertaking the community attitude survey on the City’s behalf, so that the survey content and resulting data provides an accurate snapshot of community sentiment on a number of issues.

If yours is among the households selected to participate in the 2022 Community Survey, I urge you to do your part by responding and making your opinions known. Please allow approximately 12 minutes to complete the survey on behalf of your household.

For additional survey details, contact Emma Speight, Community Affairs Director, at 614-583-5045 or espeight@uaoh.net.

Solid Waste Program Reminders
The City’s Solid Waste Program includes the collection of trash, recycling, yard waste and bulk items. Here are some useful reminders for aiding the collection process and preserving community aesthetics.

Screening Requirements
Households should keep trash and recycling containers out of view from the street, except when putting them at the curb before your collection day. Options are to store the containers in an enclosed structure, such as your garage or shed. If you are unable to store them inside, containers should be stored to the side or rear of the residence and steps should be taken to screen them from street view. This can be accomplished with a natural landscaped barrier or with fencing that is a minimum of 42 inches in height. Full details of this requirement can be found within § 7.15(A)4 of the Unified Development Ordinance.

When to Put Containers at the Curb
The City restricts the length of time that trash and recycling containers can be out at the curb in advance of and following your collection day.
- Place all items for disposal at the curb between 6 pm the night before and 7 am the day of your regularly scheduled collection
- Following collection, containers should be removed from the curb and returned to their regular storage location by 7 am of the day following collection.

Correct Placement of Containers
For efficiency and safety reasons, it’s important to make sure crews have easy access to the containers:
- Trash and recycling containers should be placed at the curb (not in the street).
- Containers should be at least three feet apart from each other and from other items, such as trees and sign posts.
- Do not park cars in front of containers.
- Place containers so that the lid openings are facing into the street.

Trash & Recycling Container Quick Tips
- Trash items that are meant for the landfill should be bagged and placed in your grey trash container.
- Accepted recyclables should be placed loose in your blue recycling container.
- If you have additional items, place them in a secondary, clearly-marked trash or recycling container.

For full details, including a list of accepted recyclables, visit our Solid Waste Services page at upperarlingtonoh.gov.

Yard Waste Guidelines
Yard waste is picked up from the curb on your regular trash collection day, with the following requirements:
- Use approved biodegradable yard waste bags; OR
- Place yard waste in marked containers, making sure the weight of each container does not exceed 50 lbs.
- For branches, cut them down to four-five feet in length and bundle with twine/rope, making sure each bundle does not exceed 50 lbs in weight.
- Plastic bags are NOT accepted.
- Yard waste mixed with trash is NOT accepted.
- Yard waste in containers MUST be marked as “Yard Waste.”
- The City has “Yard Waste” decals available at the Municipal Services Center (3600 Tremont Road) and at UA libraries; or mailed by request at 614-583-5350.

Ohio Mulch Facility, 4120 Roberts Road
UA residents may drop off accepted yard waste items free-of-charge at the Regional Composting Facility, operated by Ohio Mulch. You may be asked to provide proof of residency to qualify for free drop-off for items larger than 1/4” in diameter.

e-Waste Drop-off at Public Service Center
The City offers a convenient location for recycling electronic waste (e-waste). Items can be dropped off Monday-Friday, 7 am-4 pm at the Public Service Center, located at 4100 Roberts Road. Please do not discard e-waste in your household trash. A full list of accepted items can be found on our Solid Waste Services page, at upperarlingtonoh.gov.

Food Waste Composting Program
The City now offers both drop-off and curbside collection of food waste in partnership with GoZERO Services. The curbside collection program is a pilot program open to a limited number of households.

Drop-off locations are as follows:
- Municipal Services Center, 3600 Tremont Road – on the south side of the building next to the dumpsters
- Amelita Mirolo Barn, Sunny 95 Park, 4395 Carriage Hill Lane – by the front entrance
- Fancyburg Park, 3375 Kioka Avenue – in the parking lot off Kioka Avenue

Earlier this spring, the Upper Arlington Board of Education launched a community engagement process to listen, learn and lead in an effort to help our schools and our community be the best they can be.

“We have seen a lot of energy in our community around our Listen Learn Lead process,” Board of Education President Lori Trent said. “It’s been exciting to see community members, staff members and students engaged in conversations about their vision and priorities for the future of our schools.”

Since launching the process in March, the Board of Education has hosted seven community roundtable discussions, with hundreds of parents, community members, staff members and students engaging in productive conversations about their vision and priorities for the future of our schools.

“When we think about the future of our schools, student voice is extremely important to myself and the other members of the Board of Education,” Trent said. “We were excited to include some additional sessions for students to really get a better understanding of what they think.”

“The end result of all of these roundtable discussions is that we heard from a wide range of people with different perspectives and interesting ideas on topics like academics, well-being, school finances and communication, and all of those viewpoints helped shape the next phase of our engagement process,” Trent said.

The next step is an online survey based on the themes that emerged from the roundtable discussions. The survey is open to any and all parents, community members, staff members and students.

Following the survey, a findings report based on all of the data points from this process will be shared with the Board of Education. The report, which will be posted at www.uaschools.org/ListenLearnLead.aspx, will serve as an important guide for the Board in determining future plans for the district.

“As we shared when we launched this process, this is a first step in an ongoing commitment by the Board of Education to engage our community,” Trent said. “There will be more opportunities going forward – because we are better when we are all working together. We are truly fortunate to live in a community that is so committed to supporting the education of our students.”

Listen Learn Lead Update

The next step in the community engagement process is an online survey open to all parents, community members, staff members and students. You can scan the QR code to access the survey via our Listen Learn Lead webpage, or call the district office at 614-487-5000 to request a paper copy.
We are proud to share with the entire community our Quality Profile, our annual accountability report that gives our community a clear and transparent look at what’s happening in our schools and with our students. The Quality Profile aligns with our 2019-2024 Strategic Plan, which identifies a focused set of priorities that support our position as a national leader in education and continue our focus on challenging and supporting every student, every step of the way.

Whole learning is our core business - academics. We are building on the district’s long-running philosophy of educating the whole child by providing rigorous academic content and real-world learning experiences that will give our students an even stronger foundation to serve, lead and succeed in life.

Student and staff well-being is critical to fostering a safe and inclusive environment where our students can thrive. Students and staff who aren’t well won’t be able to learn or teach to their fullest potential – and that is why well-being is critical to the academic success of our students.

Continuous improvement is the foundation of the strategic plan. This is the idea of getting better at getting better – and this is threaded through the Quality Profile, just as it is threaded through everything we do in our schools.

These priorities are all grounded in our mission, vision and values:

- Our mission: Challenge and support every student, every step of the way
- Our values: Start with Heart, Strength in Team and Contagious Drive

We believe it is critically important to continue to provide our community with the Quality Profile to measure our progress toward our strategic priorities. If you have any suggestions, please complete the form available at www.uaschools.org/qualityprofile.aspx.

Well-being Update

Academics are our main business, but we also know that students who aren’t well can’t learn. That’s why student and staff well-being is one of the priority areas identified in our district’s strategic plan.

Upper Arlington Schools is uniquely equipped to address the needs of our students thanks to a network of full-time mental health and physical health services in our schools. We are excited to expand on this network by partnering with The Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center Behavioral Health Services and Office of Student Life to provide access to school-based behavioral health services to our students and families. Through this partnership, students and families will have access to two onsite psychotherapists with both in-person and virtual services, as well as priority access for clinical services. These experts will also work hand-in-hand with our school counselors, related staff and mental health professionals through our partnership with Syntero to ensure an overall continuity of services for our students.

By expanding our toolkit and partnering with the experts from The Ohio State University, we will be better able to meet the unique needs of our students to ensure we are supporting them every step of their academic journey here in Upper Arlington.

In the Upper Arlington Schools, we are committed to providing our community with a clear and transparent communication about our district’s finances and the factors that will impact our financial situation in the coming years.

This spring, we released the 2021-2022 Financial Update, which details the sources of our funding, how that money is used and other topics that may affect district finances. You can find this report at www.uaschools.org/treasurer.aspx. As with all district publications, we welcome feedback so we can continue to refine the report each year.

In May, I will go through the process of updating the five-year forecast, a legally required report that covers three years of actual data and five years of anticipated revenues and expenditures. Every November, I present a new five-year forecast to the Board of Education, and then in May I update the forecast, helping us keep a clear view on our financial outlook and the impact of future needs.

At a special meeting in March, I shared a preview of the five-year forecast update with the Board of Education as they consider how to address the district’s future financial needs. As I’ve shared, we are keeping a close eye on several things that may impact our finances – historic inflation, enrollment growth and the decision to delay an operating levy for two years as a result of the pandemic and the economic situation.

As of this fall, it will have been five years since we last went to voters to request additional operating funding. Over the past two years, in the absence of new operating funding, we have creatively stretched our financial resources by reducing our budget reserve; seeking out approximately $4.6 million in cost reductions, primarily through a three-year hiring freeze on new positions; and utilizing additional COVID-related funding made available to school districts.

Even with the proactive steps we have taken, our expenditures are already outpacing our revenue. This is a typical levy cycle for a suburban school district, and it’s why suburban school districts like Upper Arlington usually go back to voters every three years to request new operating funding.

The Board of Education will be considering how to move forward with our district’s financial situation in the coming months.

If you would like to learn more about the district’s finances, please visit our website, www.uaschools.org/treasurer, or contact me at treasurer@uaschools.org.

District Leading the Way With Science-based Approach to Literacy

For the past decade, Upper Arlington Schools has set the standard for literacy instruction by building a strong foundation for success for early readers. By working closely with families and specifically those with children experiencing dyslexia, the district has bolstered its literacy framework with phonemic awareness and phonics-based instruction that lays the foundation for lifelong reading skills.

Upper Arlington Schools has also been at the table to craft a new law - Ohio House Bill 436 - that outlines the components of literacy screening for students and training for teachers in order to identify any student who shows the markers of dyslexia and monitor their progress.

In addition, the district has been working with the Ohio Department of Education and other districts that are leaders in this area to update kindergarten reading standards to focus on the foundational reading skills needed and appropriate for this age group.

At the heart of this work is the district’s long-standing commitment to educating and supporting the whole child. It’s that commitment that has led Upper Arlington Schools to take this work a step further – by introducing a new literacy framework that incorporates the scientific research into how children learn to read in order to create a successful outcome for every student.

“We’re simply shifting our approach and continuing to improve in how we approach literacy and teach reading for every student,” said Michelle Banks, director of curriculum and instruction.

Literacy, or the ability to read and write, is the foundation for all learning, and kindergarten is a critical time for laying the groundwork for this important skill set. The adoption of this new framework builds on the phonemic awareness and phonics-based approach that was adopted about a decade ago and coincides with the district’s transition to all-day kindergarten, which gives teachers more time to develop students’ skills in this key area of academics.

“We know through scientific research that all children learn how to read the same way but at different paces,” Banks said. “Some children could learn to read in the dark, because they know and understand the process. And there are other kids who need explicit instruction in phonics and phonemic awareness in order to become successful readers.”

This instructional practice puts an emphasis on science behind reading by teaching phonemic awareness, the idea of learning how sounds fit together to form words. A key part of instruction will be the district’s new multi-tiered system of support framework, which puts the structures in place to support differentiated and personalized learning for every student.

“Our work in the area of literacy is a testament to our mission of challenging and supporting every student, every step of the way and to our strategic commitment to continuous improvement – the idea of always striving to be better, even as we’re a leader in the work,” Banks said.

UA Schools Educator Honored for Literacy, Dyslexia Work

Upper Arlington Schools instructional leader Andrea Rowson has been named the 2022 Champion of Change by the Central Ohio branch of the International Dyslexia Association for her work in transforming education for students with dyslexia.

In Upper Arlington, Rowson has been integral in the adoption of a new literacy framework that incorporates the scientific research into how children learn to read in order to create a successful outcome for every student.

“Andrea’s passion and dedication to literacy is unwavering,” said Director of Student Services Jaclyn Angle, Ed.D. “She is a leader in the field, and we are honored to have her as an enormous resource and wealth of information for our staff – and that ultimately benefits our students.”

Rowson has also spent countless hours working to make change on the state level. She was part of a team of educators who helped craft House Bill 436, a law passed in 2021 that seeks to improve structured literacy by outlining the components of dyslexia screening of students and dyslexia training for teachers.

Rowson also serves as an associate director at the Children’s Dyslexia Center and is president of the Ohio chapter of the Academic Language Therapy Association.

Library Seeks Teen Summer Volunteers

All three Upper Arlington Public Library locations are seeking teen volunteers for this year’s “Ocean of Possibilities” Summer Reading Club. Volunteering is a great way to gain experience, meet friends, earn service hours, and get a glimpse of the behind-the-scenes world of your local library.

Volunteer opportunities at each location are limited. Applications will be considered on a rolling basis with priority to those who meet the application deadlines listed below.

Summer Reading Volunteers
Summer Reading Volunteers commit to shifts on their own schedule from June 1-July 31. You’ll complete tasks like assisting at the summer reading table, explaining the program to participants, and awarding prizes. Responsibilities may vary by location.

These positions are open to teens entering grades 7-12 and are located at our Main and Lane Road Libraries. Summer Reading Volunteer applications are due May 31.

Book Buddies
Inspire young readers by volunteering as a book buddy! In this popular summer program, teen volunteers are paired with an elementary school student. Over a five-week period, Book Buddies will “coach” their reading buddies, helping them grow confident and excited about reading.

Book Buddy positions are open to teens entering grades 6-12 and are available at Tremont and Miller Park Libraries. Applications are due May 31.

Applications for these opportunities are available at teenvolunteers.ualibrary.org. Questions? Stop by any library’s youth department for information.

I would like to thank our dedicated volunteers who work tirelessly to help the Library in so many ways.

First, I must thank and recognize the Friends of the Library, a volunteer organization of nearly 300 members who raise tens of thousands of dollars for the Library each year through their book sales and permanent bookstores. The Friends provide funding for adult and children’s programming, and many thousands of dollars’ worth of equipment. Membership dues, donations and funds raised from book sales have enabled the Friends to buy new shelving, furniture, book drops, computers, and even vehicles.

The Friends donated $10,000 dollars in 2021 to help fund the new Early Learning Play Area at the Main Library, a special place that will create memories for families and children for years to come.

I would also like to thank the volunteers who help us with fundamental services, like shelving materials. Our volunteers shelve many cartfuls of items each week. Without their time and attention to detail, it would be much harder to get items into the hands of our patrons quickly and efficiently.

Another indispensable group is our Outreach volunteers. These hard working, caring individuals deliver books and items to patrons who are homebound and unable to come to the Library. Now more than ever, Outreach delivery is essential to ensure that we are providing service to all who need it.

During the school year, teen volunteers spend a combined 15 hours a week helping our youth services team prepare for and run programs, keeping our department organized, and assisting with pulling over 400 requested items for kids and teens.

From all of us at the Upper Arlington Public Library, we sincerely thank our volunteers for your time, dedication, and support.
